AMERICAN LEGION
COLORADO BOYS STATE

A WEEK THAT WILL SHAPE A LIFETIME

2024 Daily Guide

Name: _____

City: _____

Welcome to American Legion Colorado Boys State

The thought of creating a fully functioning 51st state (including cities, counties, political parties, a state legislature, and executive branch of government) is overwhelming. But you and your fellow American Legion Colorado Boys State Citizens will do just that.

This Daily Guide has been designed to assist you in this endeavor. If you read and follow the instructions in this guidebook you will begin with small steps and gradually learn the processes required to create and operate your government. Please be aware: locations may change, so be vigilant!

Our time is limited, so don't delay in getting started. Review each day's schedule, and the additional information noted at the end of the day. There are many helpful hints and guidelines to assist you. Though time passes quickly, don't short-cut anything. It will not benefit you or Boys State to merely "check off" the required steps. Work through each step thoroughly and strategically, as they affect how future requirements are met. Keep up, but don't get ahead of yourself.

It is extremely helpful to review the next day's schedule at the end of each day. Ask questions if you must, but the best source of guidance is this Daily Guide, the Boys State Manual, and your fellow Boys State Citizens. After all, this is your Boys State, and the quality of government you create and manage will be entirely based on your desires and your ability to negotiate and compromise with other Citizens.

You will begin the week in City and County government, and by mid-week, you will serve in the House of Representatives, the Senate, the Appeals Court, or a State Government position. There you will create bills or debate bills to form Boys State Law. The bills must be created by you and your fellow Citizens, so don't miss an opportunity to propose your ideas for legislation. Don't be afraid to share your thoughts on real issues of today. There is a strong possibility that some bills debated and passed at American Legion Colorado Boys State will be shared with real Colorado State legislators, perhaps even the governor himself.

Good Luck in creating your 51st state!

Town Hall Meetings

It is a time-honored tradition of the Colorado Boys State that the candidates for major offices pay tribute to each city. Each candidate will have a short time to introduce themselves, their goals, and their ideals to each city. At the same time, each city is entitled the right to ask the candidates questions pertaining to their candidacy, proposed programs, and personal character.

This is intended to be an exercise in the local nature of state politics. A state candidate must earn his office by competing for local communities' loyalties. It is through that loyalty that a candidate becomes successful and maintains his influence while in office.

It is also a fun time, as questions can range from, "What is your goal with the highway funding issue?" to "Have you ever licked the tail of a frog, and why not?" This is a moment of hilarity and camaraderie. We are providing guidelines to what is and what is not acceptable.

ACCEPTABLE

- Funny questions
- Policy questions
- Questions about a candidate's allegiances

UNACCEPTABLE

- Touching of candidate
- "Strobe-lighting"
- Forcing candidate to consume any product or material
- Extreme profanity
 - Includes comments considered discriminatory
 - Any comment on the physical characteristic of the candidate is out of bounds
- Cannot compel the candidate to lay prone/horizontal

It is highly recommended and encouraged that more than half of your questions are policy oriented.
